1. During the course of his recent visit to Athens, Qemal Mesareja, Grand Chamberlain to former King Zog, pointed out in his discussions with leading Greek officials the desirability of having Abas Kupi visit Athens. According to source, Mesareja feels that should ex-King Zog agree to send Kupi to Athens, he has paved his way.
2. Mesareja disclosed to a friend that, during his interview with the Greek officials, he did not find them as receptive to discussing Albanian matters as they had been on previous occasions. Mesareja attributed this reluctance to the present attitude of the United States with regard to the Tito Government; he interpreted this reluctance as being due to a feeling, on the part of the Greeks, that this new attitude might well lead to a division (partition ?) of Albania by Yugoslavia and Greece.
3. Mesareja departed for Alexandria, Egypt, on 5 March 1951, after a visit of about six weeks.
